Khatchaturian

GAYNE, BALLET SUITE

CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Artur Rodzinski, Conductor

Album DM-1212 (12-0257 - 12-0258) List Price, $4.00

- 1. Awakening and Dance of Ayshe
- 2. Dance of the Rose Maidens
- 3. Lullaby
- 4. Sabre Dance

Yes, this is the complete ballet music from whence comes the latest phenomenon of the music-speaking world — that vivid, rampant, passionate orchestral tour de force known as the Sabre Dance! This is the ballet excerpt that has evolved into both a familiar concert hall item and a juke-box favorite, placing Khatchaturian among the Hit Parade's top melodymasters. But there is more to this exciting ballet than the Sabre Dance. Four twelve-inch record sides of which the Sabre Dance is the finale, include the Awakening and Dance of Ayshe, the lovely Dance of the Rose Maidens and the tender Lullaby. Exotic and subtle rhythms, combined with rich tonal colors predominate throughout the Gayne Ballet Suite. The performance by Arthur Rodzinski and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra is tops!

LEONARD WARREN, Baritone with Willard Sektberg at the Plano 10-1406, $1.15

Leonard Warren is one of the greatest operatic baritones alive today, yet his interpretation of None But The Lonely Heart and Because is completely relaxed and couched in human sentimentality. Most of you know and love these standard melodies. They are familiar, tried and true. Lady John Scott
