Chopin
CHOPIN PIANO MUSIC

Andante spianato and Grande Polonaise in E Flat, Op. 22 - Waltz in A Minor, Op. 34, No. 2 - Polonaise in A Flat, Op. 53

VLADIMIR HOROWITZ, Pianist
Album DM-1034 (11-9046 - 11-9048)

List Price, $4.80

Chopin's immortal piano compositions, whistled, sung and beloved by generations of music lovers, are sensitively performed by Vladimir Horowitz in this interesting program . . . a fine display of Horowitz magic in artistry, versatility and technique.

Schöenberg
TRANSFIGURED NIGHT

(Verklärte Nacht, Op. 4)
Music for the ballet "Pillar of Fire"

ST. LOUIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
VLADIMIR GOLSCHMANN, Conductor
Album DM-1005 (11-8820 - 11-8823)

List Price, $6.15

With sublime understanding, Vladimir Golschmann directs the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra in a breath-catching and imaginative interpretation of "Transfigured Night" . . . the score used for the ballet "Pillar of Fire." This impassioned music, expressively suggesting desire, passion, inhibitions, is presented in one of the finest recordings ever made.

Rimsky-Korsakow
SCHEHERAZADE

Symphonic Suite, Op. 35 and
MARCH from the Suite, Tsar Saltan

SAN FRANCISCO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
PIERRE MONTEUX, Conductor
Album DM-920 (11-8264 - 11-8268)

List Price, $7.50

"Once upon a time," the beautiful and clever Scheherazade saved her life by spinning fairy tales for "A Thousand and One Nights." In 1881, Rimsky-Korsakow, one-time Russian sailor . . . now immortal composer translated Scheherazade's imagery into the exotic suite which bears her name. Today, Pierre Monteux and his San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, through the magic of Victor records, breathes new life into Scheherazade, weaving her fabulous tales of Sinbad the Sailor, The Young Prince and Princess, etc., into a glowing tapestry of tone for your enjoyment. The fantastic March from Rimsky-Korsakow's Suite, Tsar Saltan, completes this magnificent set.

RCA Victor is proud to present in Duke Ellington's "Black, Brown and Beige" an outstanding contribution to modern music and a new milestone in the story of jazz. Hailed as Ellington's finest creative work, this tone parallel to the history of the Negro on this continent met with immediate recognition when it received its world premiere in Carnegie Hall. Available on two 12" Victor Records, this truly significant work realizes the full musical potentialities of the Ellington orchestra. Here is a mature performance of rich haunting melodies, here is superb orchestration, here in a word, is genuine musical experience. You'll want this for your library.

LOOK OUT

40-4000 $1.35

Hep Cats, Hot Jazz Collectors, and even Long Hairs will clamor for this 12" disc which features a collection of today's outstanding musicians.

Metronome All Out written by the Duke and Bill Strayhorn, features a "Who's Who" of Jazz. Sax: Johnny Hodges, Herbie Fiedlers, Buddy de Franco, Georgie Auld, "Flip" Phillips and Carney. Trumpet: Pete Candoli, Harry Edison, "Sonny" Berman and Neil Hefti. Trombone: J. C. Higginbotham, Tommy Dorsey and Bill Harris. Piano: Teddy Wilson. Guitar: "Tiny" Grimes and Bill Bauer. Vibraphone: "Red" Norvo. Drums: Dave Tough. The Duke guest-conducts.

A product of Sy Oliver's pen, Look Out lists practically the same line-up only this time "Cootie" Williams and "Rex" Stewart join the trumpet section; Will Bradley sits in with the trombone group; Buddy de Franco plays clarinet instead of sax and "Chubby" Jackson comes in on bass. "Red" Norvo sits this one out while Sy guest-conducts. This is definitely a collector's item.
