Album DM-959 (11-8550 - 11-8553)

List Price, $6.15

Jascha Heifetz, William Primrose and the late Emanuel Feuermann, three names synonymous with impeccable string playing, blend their individual genius to achieve complete unanimity in one of Mozart's greatest Chamber Music Masterpieces. The Divertimento in E Flat Major for Violin, Viola, and Violoncello, imbued with gaiety, spontaneity and verve, breathes the spirit of the 18th Century in all its purity, simplicity and charm. The completely flawless technique, the depth of understanding of the score, the approach of thoughtfulness and reverence of this matchless trio of great artists, result in a performance which will make Chamber Music History.

BACH: TRANSCRIPTIONS FOR ORCHESTRA

LEOPOLD STOKOWSKI AND THE
PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA

Album M-963 (11-8576 - 11-8578)

List Price, $4.80

Stokowski's transcriptions of Bach are world famous: enthusiastically applauded in concert hall performance; among the most sought after recordings. His presentation of the master's spirit in full-bodied orchestral tone . . . the thorough understanding and sympathy of his translations . . . have united with the grandeur of his effects to enrich today's living with the "Old Testament of Music."

The new album offers such beloved Bach as the Chorale Prelude "I Cry to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ" and "All is Fulfilled" from the St. John Passion. In addition there is the first movement of a Bach Sonata, a Bach Prelude and Fugue, and, as a final record side, Palestrina's beautiful "Adoramus Te."

LOHENGRIN: (Prelude to Act III)

Boston "Pops" Orchestra,

Arthur Fiedler, Conductor

10-1091 $1.00

Latest addition to the Boston "Pops" unrivalled repertoire is the brilliant Coronation March from Meyerbeer's opera "Le Prophète." Occurring at one of the high-points of the opera, the March moves with a dignity and sublimity to an inspiring conclusion. Under the direction of Arthur Fiedler, the orchestra captures the consummate grandeur of this greatest of all Coronation Marches, in this latest Victor Red Seal release.

Heralding the familiar and joyous "Bridal Chorus," the "Prelude" to Act III of Wagner's opera Lohengrin, bursts forth upon the ears with the full sweep of strings, surgings of wood-winds and brass, and crash of cymbals. Never has a wedding festival been so happily expressed in music!

The Boston "Pops" recording, transcends your fondest expectations in a performance overflowing with life and colour.

SLAVONIC DANCE No. 3 IN A FLAT MAJOR

St. Louis Symphony Orchestra,
Vladimir Golschmann, Conductor

11-8566

$1.35

Antonin Dvorák probably attained his greatest fame through his Slavonic Dances. Originally written as piano duets, these pieces, filled as they are with gypsy tunes and racy rhythms enraptured England and Germany. Later in their orchestral forms they captivated audiences the world over. Here, two of these gay colorful pieces are performed brilliantly and with crisp authority by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Vladimir Golschmann.
